

Amersham Hospital

Year 1999/2000

For this new healthcare facility keeping to the construction programme was critical. The construction manager was looking for a lightweight heating panel that could be manufactured in high volumes and installed easily and quickly.

The Atrium panel was selected because of its proven performance characteristics and its 25-year integrity life cycle.

client
architect consultant
main contractor
m&e contractor

Hoare Lea & Partners
Taylor Woodrow
Sidney Cabbage